Supplement

DEPUTY KING

Youngest among nine Rulers

THE Timbalan Yang di-Pertuan Agong, Sultan Mizan Zainal Abidin ibni Al-Marhum Sultan Mahmud Al-Muktafi Billah Shah is the youngest among the reigning state rulers.

The 40-year-old Sultan of Terengganu was re-elected to the post of deputy King last December by the Conference of Malay Rulers.

Sultan Mizan was first picked as the Deputy Yang di-Pertuan Agong, when Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah was elected King in April 1999.

Sultan Mizan was proclaimed the 16th Sultan of Terengganu on May 15, 1998, a day after the death of his father Al-Marhum Sultan Mahmud.

His Majesty, who was born on Jan 22, 1962 in Kuala Terengganu, received his early education at Sekolah Rendah Sultan Sulaiman and later at Sekolah Menengah Sultan Sulaiman.

The second child in a family of seven siblings, then furthered his studies at Geelong Grammar School in Melbourne, Australia in 1979.

In 1981, he served as an assistant land revenue collector for a year with the Kuala Terengganu Land Office before leaving for the Royal Military Academy in Sandhurst, England.

After completing his training as a cadet officer in 1983, he returned to serve in the Royal Calvary Corps as an Honorary Lieutenant.

In 1988, after obtaining a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations from the US International University-Europe in London, he became an administrative officer at the Terengganu State Economic Planning Unit.

On June 1, 1991, he was appointed president of the Terengganu Islamic Religious and Malay Customs Sultan Mizan and Permaisuri Nur Zahirah, who were married in 1996, have four children.

Council and held the post until 1995.

Sultan Mizan, whose interests include football, polo and golf, also loves to scuba dive, especially at Pulau Redang.

His Majesty married Cik Puan Seri Rozita Adil Bakeri in 1996 in Kuala Terengganu.

She was later accorded the title

Permaisuri Nur Zahirah on July 12, 1998 after Sultan Mizan was proclaimed Sultan.

Permaisuri Nur Zahirah, who was born on December 7, 1973, received her early education at Sekolah Rendah Jenis Kebangsaan St. Nicholas Convent and Sekolah Menengah St. Nicholas Convent, both in Alor Star, Kedah.

The royal couple has four children - Tengku Nadhirah Zahrah, who was born in Dec 18, 1996; Tengku Muhammad Ismail, who was born on March 1, 1998, Tengku Muhammad Mua'az, who was born on Dec 22, 2000, and a baby girl who was born last Friday.
